Desperate Appeal Is Made For Blood

CAMPBELL CIVIC LEADERS DISCUSS BLOOD NEEDS AT MEETING IN CUHS

A group of Campbell civic, religious, and business leaders met in the office of superintendent, Laurence J. Hill at Campbell High School Tuesday evening to hear representative leaders of San Jose Blood Bank stress the need for an active campaign for collecting blood in Campbell. Red Cross mobile blood bank will arrive in Campbell at the Campbell Methodist Church, January 26th from 3 p. m. to 6 p. m. and will attempt to reach its quota of 100 pints from Campbell residents.

Joaquin Payne, Campbell manager of the American Trust Company presided over the meeting which included on the panel, Dr. Robert Dennis, chairman of Board of directors of Blood Center, Allister Anderson, manager Santa Clara chapter American Red Cross, and Fred Fletcher, chairman of Blood program San Jose chapter and business manager of Santa Clara Valley Blood Bank; Mrs. Virginia Fairley, secretary to Blood recruit chairman.

Attending the meeting were Laurence J. Hill, Rev. Corwin H. Olds of Campbell Congregational Church, Rev. Herbert Neale of Campbell Methodist Church, George Hartwell, from Hunt's Foods, Ira Grim, Campbell postmaster, Louis Carboni, representing St. Lucy's Men's Club, Fred Jones, Sr., of Jones' Service Station, Harold Estensen, of Campbell Furniture and Appliance Store, Ed Carman of Cambrian Men's Club, Claude Smith, representing Campbell Lion's Club, C. P. Klassen of the High School, Mrs. Edna Smith of local Red Cross Chapter, Mrs. Ethan Lanphear of Business and Professional Women's Club and Veterans of Foreign Wars Auxiliary, Milt Nelson, of Nelson Grain.

First business of the meeting was a presentation to Mrs. Verle Grizzle, for her work as chairman of past Red Cross blood donation drives in Campbell.

Purpose of the meeting was to outline to community leaders blood needs of San Jose Blood Bank, which serves the Campbell area.

The local center, the panel pointed out, first meets civilian demands which average 60 pints a month for Campbell, military needs, which are three times that for civilian use, are second and whole blood from which gamma and other globulins are extracted for use in treating polio cases, are also required.

Fletcher discussed the business end of collection and stressed the fact that unless 100 pints of blood are collected in Campbell on the next drive, the mobile unit operates at a financial loss in spite of volunteer work of Campbell citizens. He said the drives in Campbell in the past have not been successful. In the last drive, Payne said that 20 pints of blood had been collected and the time before that, 16—not at all representative of the Campbell area.

Fletcher said it was not unusual for one patient to require six or eight pints of blood at one operation and there have been instances where 30 pints of blood were needed for a single patient. The idea that one pint will serve one patient is erroneous, he said. It has come to the point, Fletcher said, where in order to meet local emergencies, military needs, and to be ready in event of national disaster, a stepped-up program of organization according to business methods must be followed in order to meet increasing needs. Emotional appeals result in unpredictable quantities.

In line with organizational methods for securing whole blood, Anderson outlined the credit system of donating, which will be followed in the Campbell drive. Donor receives a "Credit Card" which states there is in the Blood Bank of Santa Clara County, a deposit which entitles him to draw blood when needed without cost to himself or his family. The card, similar to gasoline credit cards, is good anywhere in the country, even in those areas where blood costs patients $35 a pint.

Dr. Robert Dennis outlined the history of blood and its uses, and likened the development of blood as a medical aid, to the advancement of the automobile in the matter of time. Fifty years ago, he said, the use of blood as a medical aid was considered not only impractical, but dangerous.

Today, he said, blood has almost eliminated the RH factor problem in babies.

Transfusion techniques have advanced from the "bloody mess" stage to fast, efficient and absolutely safe methods. Latest development is in treatment of polio and there may be other uses still to be discovered, he said.

Following talks by the panel, Payne requested comments, and questions from the audience which centered on finding out why the Campbell appeal had fallen short in the past.

Solution to increasing donations, it was brought out, was to start a program of education whereby the tremendous need and reason for blood would be brought home to the largest number of people. Once a person has donated, the chances are he will return again and gain, Fletcher said.

HOSPITAL AREA NEEDS NEW STUDY, SAY DIRECTORS

First meeting of new board of directors of West Valley Hospital District which met last Thursday opposed dissolution of the district as a solution to area's problems, but favored legislation to exclude outlying territory north of Campbell Avenue.

They said that once district boundaries are made more practicable, a further study of hospital needs and facilities should be made.

Bruce Allen, co-sponsor of Assembly Bill 54 with Robert Kirkwood, former assemblyman, calling for dissolution of the district, was invited to next meeting to discuss the proposed legislation.

At this first meeting since defeat of an $800,000 bond issue to build a hospital at Vasona Junction, last November, William Matenberger, newly elected member of the board and Los Gatos attorney, was named chairman of the new board. Mrs. Charles Chubb, new member from Campbell was elected secretary.

Carry over directors, Harry Whiteman and Dr. Merlin T. Maynard agreed with Matenberger and Chubb that dissolution of the district was not the solution to the area's problems.

In other business, the board approved payment of bills and heard an explanation of previous business by carry-over director Harry Whiteman. The board also set the regular meeting date as the second Thursday of the month and decided to investigate possibilities of obtaining use of the Los Gatos Town Hall for a meeting place. Whiteman said an audit of the district's books had been made and submitted findings of the move to the rest of the members.

He was born in Kentucky, October 16, 1826, the sixth of eight children. Campbell Merchants Show Progress By Declaring Dividends To Shoppers

The Campbell Merchant Stamp Plan seems to have taken hold in the city with more merchants and customers participating than ever before. With the population increasing and new businesses being attracted to the area with an eye to the potential that awaits the progressive merchant, leading stores in the city keep coming up with new ideas to stimulate business.

Latest incentive for Campbell area residents to trade in their own city is the end of the month shopping bargains offered by member merchants in their double stamp day bargains set for January 29th. The 49 firms on that day will double their dividends usually offered under the plan.

Instead of the usual one stamp for every ten cent purchase the equivalent of a three percent discount on purchases, merchants on Double Stamp Day will offer a double discount of two stamps amounting to six percent discount. The stamp plan which started with 26 members has grown in less than a year to 37. It has been made possible by the appreciation of savings-minded Campbell shoppers, and progressive-minded merchants.

Recent additions to the plan are Gamble's Western Auto Store on E. Campbell Ave. which changed management during the past year, Algar's Pharmacy at 36 E. Campbell Ave., a new business in the community under Harry Algar. Verle Grizzle, jeweler on Campbell Ave. is another recent member as is Curry Plumbing and plumbers Schmidt and Hammer on Campbell Ave.

Campbell Richfield Service Station on Winchester, under the management of "Harry and Joe" and Storey's Automotive Service are other new businesses with an eye to the future. Campbell Washette on E. Campbell Ave. is another recent addition to the plan.

Original members of the Stamp Plan which offer double dividends in the January 29th Double Stamp Day are:

Accardi's Appliances, Campbell Furniture and Appliance Co., Campbell Hardware Company, Orchard City Appliance, Western Gravel Co., House of Carpets, House of Furniture, Campbell Cleaners, Clark's Drugs, Rhea's Golden Rule, Nelson Grain and Supply Company, Bott's Garage, Bud's Texaco Service, Cambrian Garage, Winchester Hardware, Campbell Publishing Co. 1953 OLD SETTLERS' DAY PROGRAM PROMISES TO BE ONE OF OUTSTANDING INTEREST; NEW FEATURES ADDED

Tentative plans for Old Settlers' Day parade, Campbell's oldest annual community frolic scheduled for February 23 will feature an early California theme, according to parade co-chairmen Les Harmon and Ira Grim. Cowboys, Indians, covered wagons, the best horse-flesh in the Santa Clara Valley, floats to carry out the theme in realistic fashion are tentatively planned to roll back the years to the days of the early settlers in the valley.

COUNCIL HOLDS PUBLIC HEARING ON USE PERMITS

City Council discussed scheduled public hearings on use permits for Emsley F. Whistler to lease property to Mrs. Pauline Wiesnant for a Rest Home on Fawcett Drive; for Mission and Yellow Taxi Company to operate in the city; and, application of Church of Christ to construct an Auditorium on Rincon Ave. off Hamilton at their meeting Monday night.

Council also advised Campbell Union School District in answer to their letter that all cross walks in the city would be painted soon. School district had requested cross walks be repainted to insure safety of school children.

City engineer Mark W. Thomas will report next Monday as to what steps may be taken to eliminate wet and muddy street conditions in vicinity of Rosemary School.

Emsley F. Whistler was granted a use permit to lease property to Mrs. Pauline Wiesnant for a Rest home on Fawcett Drive, subject to laws pertaining to that type of structure with the provision that no alcoholic, mental, or contagious diseased patients be treated. Permit was granted after council had satisfied themselves that state and local fire laws had been complied with and that use of the property would be confined to the specific use applied for.

Spokesman, John Santner, Cliff Winters, and Albert Weeks for Church of Christ were notified that council's decision on granting a permit for Church auditorium on Rincon Ave. would be deferred one week pending advice and investigation of City engineer Mark Thomas as to exact setback required.

A discussion arose when spokesmen argued that 25 foot setback suggested by planning consultant Nestor Barrett would obscure building from Winchester Road, because of lesser setback of an existing Hardware Store and Duplex. Council deferred granting of the permit pending information of exact setback of existing structures.

Mayor Richard W. Morton feared that with eventual widening of Rincon Ave. to planned 60 foot width, setbacks of less than 25 feet would result in hardships for other residents on the street.

Council granted a use permit to Mission and Yellow Taxi Companies to operate in the City of Campbell. Firms represented by Campbell attorney Martin S. Walsh, pointed out that taxis had been operating in the city during a probationary period and that it had performed in line with requirements of city's taxi ordinance.

Forrest Reese Receives Gifts For Chamber Work

Thirty members of the Campbell Chamber of Commerce met yesterday at a luncheon meeting at Martin's Restaurant to present outgoing secretary-manager Forrest Reese with several tokens of appreciation for his services during the past five years.

Meeting was arranged by new president Harold Estensen and Olie Jensen, member of the board of directors.

Joaquin Payne, former Chamber president acted as toastmaster and made the presentations. Among the gifts presented to Reese were a merchandising order for Jeffer's Men and Boy Wear store, an automatic coffee maker and an electric razor.

General chairman Eugene W. Barnes, reports that committees have been preparing plans to make this celebration one of the best in Campbell history. Entry blanks are being sent out to various organizations in the county. Request for participation have already been received by committee members.

Barnes said the committee heads will continue to meet every Friday evening at 8 p. m. in the offices of the Chamber of Commerce, 19 So. First Street until final plans are worked out.

Santa Clara riding clubs have been the first to be contacted and indications are that the clomp of horse's hooves, the clink of bridle reins and the creak of saddle leather will make a fitting background to honor Campbell's oldest settlers in this second oldest celebration in the state.

A full program of events has been scheduled to enable every resident of the community to participate. Besides the parade, there will be speeches by civic leaders, a free music festival, sports in the form of softball games between Kiwanis, Rotary and Lion's Clubs, reasonably priced meals at the School cafeteria and entertainment in the form of folk dancing and a Footlighter play.

Campbell Women Plan Campaign For Guide Dogs

Plans are under way for the annual drive of the Foundation for Guide Dogs for the Blind, to open in February. Mrs. L. W. Brown is captain of the Campbell Area for the Foundation, while Mrs. Ed Nelson is chairman for Santa Clara County. On the Advisory Board representing Santa Clara County are Mrs. Edith Canon, Alex J. Hart Jr., Mrs. M. E. Haskins and F. C. Mitchell.

Mrs. M. E. Haskins instigated the work of the Foundation in this county three years ago and has continued to work on each year's campaign.

Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., according to a statement issued by the Foundation, was founded in 1942 by a group of Californians to serve the blind in the western states. The purpose of the organization is to provide dogs, trained to meet the most exacting standards of performance, without cost, to those blind persons who give promise of achieving economic independence. A non-profit corporation was formed, and a training school was established in Los Gatos. During 1946 construction was begun on a new school and kennels in Marin County, near San Rafael. The plant, in use since late 1947, is entirely free from debt, is licensed by the California State Board of Guide Dogs for the Blind, constituted by the 1947 Legislature.

Applicants for guide dogs must be judged by a selection committee as physically able and temperamentally fitted to use the dogs and must have definite plans for self-support.

Blind veterans receive first preference as applicants; second come blind persons who have previously had guide dogs and need replacements; third in eligibility are blind persons who need guide dogs to assist them in earning their livings.

Guide dogs for the Blind conduct the only school west of the Mississippi accredited by the Veterans Administration to train blind ex-servicemen in using guide dogs. It accepts veterans from the 22 states in this area.

According to the statistics of the organization, there are about 38,000 blind persons in the eleven western states, and about ten per cent of these people could use guide dogs in becoming wholly or partially self-supporting. Of these 38,000 persons, less than 800 have been provided with dogs.

Most of the dogs used in this program are bred, raised and trained by the Foundation. German Shepherds and Labrador Retrievers are the breeds usually selected, but Boxers, Dalmatians and others are occasionally accepted. At four months of age pups are sent to selected foster homes, where they are kept until they are a year old. Many 4-H Club members assist in this home-raising phase of the program.

The year-old dog is then sent to training school, where it receives three months intensive training. Then for one month the blind person is trained with the dog so that both become members of an effective man-dog unit. The blind student lives at the San Rafael school during this month.

Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., is supported by contributions, chiefly in the form of annual memberships, from individuals, organizations and business firms. These funds are raised by volunteer committees, 16 of which exist in California, and one each in Nevada, Oregon and Washington.

The cost to the organization is approximately $1,500 per man-dog unit. No charge is made to the blind for the guide dogs or for any of the training, for dog or student, at the school.

Graduates of the school are found successfully following many trades and professions.

A Scout Roundtable was conducted by Charley Mitchell District Commissioner at the Campbell High Little Theatre Tuesday, January 13th. Den Mothers of the Cambrian Cub Pack presented displays of Table Decorations of the type which cub Packs will be making for their Blue and Gold Banquets during Scout Week, February 7 to 14.

Field Executive, Mark Judy presented the new advancement program to Scouters. Scouters also made plans for the "First Aid O Ral" which will be given during Scout Week under direction of Dr. W. B. Morell, District Health and Safety Chairman. Fifty parents and boys of the Campbell Kiwanis Scout Troop met in the Campbell elementary school for a Pot Luck dinner January 13th. The main purpose of the meeting was to begin advance planning for the troops participation in the Scout summer Camp High Sierra. Al Smith, District Camping Chairman explained the advantages of a week in Camp and parents voted to send the troop to camp July 5th to 11th. Scoutmaster George Ballantyne of Moreland has reported that his troop is planning a parents meeting to have a housewarming event for their new Scout Meeting Place and also to discuss summer camp participation. They will have a Pot Luck Dinner.

Commissioners will meet at the home of Charley Mitchell on Thursday, January 29th, at 7:30 p. m.

Human Relations Films Shown PTA

Mrs. David Rose, Chairman of Human Relations for the Sixth District of the PTA, as guest speaker at the recent meeting of the Quito PTA, spoke on the January topic, "Growing Together in Health and Human Relations."

"The main idea," Mrs. Rose stated, "is to learn to get along together. Our duty as parents is to see that each child has security and may walk down the street in peace and freedom."

The speaker showed the group two films, "Sing a Song of Friendship," dealing with the basic freedoms, and "The Brotherhood of Man," which illustrated the truths that the future of civilization depends on all peoples' contribution to civilization and that all peoples have the same basic beliefs in God, in the home and in the family.

Three cub scouts led the PTA in the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Mrs. Ray Martin announced that the Mothersingers meet each Monday evening at 7:30 at Moreland School. All mothers of school children are invited to join the group. Mrs. Martin further announced that the Mothersingers will sing at the Sixth District Convention in San Jose on April 6.

Mrs. David Rose announced that February is Brotherhood Month for the PTA and that the winners of the essay contest now in progress

Hostesses for the day were the sixth grade mothers.

Mrs. H. A. Greeson, membership chairman, reviewed a book entitled, "Your Child's Mind and Body."

PARKER SCHOOL IN CAMBRIAN OPENS MONDAY

Opening of John Parker Elementary School on Union Ave. in Union District has been tentatively set for Monday, January 26th, Kenneth McDonnell, Superintendent of Union Elementary District said today.

Some paving, landscaping and installation of play apparatus will be postponed until weather permits, McDonnell said.

The school will open with an enrollment of 200, and overflow from present Union School. District showed a 34 percent rate of increase in school enrollment over January of last year, the highest percentage in the county, McDonnell said.

District showed 222 more pupils enrolled this fall than last year and McDonnell expects an additional 200 by the same time next year. Tentative plans for $33,000 in bond money passed December 16 include a seven room addition with complete facilities at Parker School.

McDonnell said contracts will be let in March. Completion of new building addition is hoped to be completed by Fall semester, 1953.

COMMUNITY CLUB BLOOD DRIVE PLANS

Preparations for the Red Cross blood drive in Campbell are being made by the Campbell Community Club, which traditionally organizes and assists in the drive. Members of the Club urge Campbell residents to donate January 26th, between 4 and 6:30 p. m., at the Campbell Methodist Church.

Mrs. Verle Grizzle is chairman of the drive. She is assisted by Mesdames Donald Lantz, Arthur Cowdery, Albert Gladding, George Miller and Earl Clark.

Always busy with worthwhile projects, the Community Club recently presented two tricycles and a tether ball to the county school for retarded children. Members have folded bandages and given afghans, pillows and pillowslips to the Visiting Nurses Association, as well as gifts to the children who are visited by the nurses.

The Community Club's chief project for the Spring, its annual benefit fashion show, is already in the process of organization, with Mrs. Wilmer E. Casterson as chairman, and Miss Marilyn Toy as co-chairman. Publicity chairman for the event is Mrs. Harley D. Jones. Refreshments will be under the chairmanship of Mrs. William Beyer; decorations, Mrs. Richard Drew; tickets and programs, Mrs. Phil Luoto; receptionist will be Mrs. Earl Clark.

Clothes shown will be from the Creative Shop and Grace's in Cambrian Park; Rachel's in Campbell and Marglad's in San Jose. Motif for the spring show will be "Parisian".

The littlest Angel at the JAY G. HAYZLETT home on Standish Drive at Christmas time was JEFFREY GOULD HAYZLETT, born Dec. 17th. He weighed 6 pounds, 6 ounces at birth and is getting along famously. Telephone calls and telegrams poured in welcoming young Jeff, from relatives who will arrive soon from Oregon, Iowa, Colorado and Southern California. Among the elated are G. HAYZLETT Sr. of Westwood and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. SMITH of Los Angeles.

There will be a rosebud placed on the altar of the Cambrian Park Methodist Church for Jeffrey.

HERE 'TIS, and it's a boy! We're being Frank and Free with a certain Man's column, because this particular boy, GLENN ALLEN FREEMAN, brand new son of Mr. and Mrs. RUSSELL FREEMAN of Leigh Avenue, is a grandson of the implicated columnist.

Glenn Allen was born at 2:43, January 13th, at Doctor's Hospital. All the Freemans are doing nicely. There's a rosebud for Glenn at the Cambrian Methodist Church too. Pore li'l Garfield's nose is out of joint.

The Junior Sunday School Class of the Cambrian Park will hold a bake sale in the near future (January 31st, being the tentative date), with proceeds to be used in the purchase of a piano and song books for the church.

Mrs. JEROME STARKEY of Redding Road entertained January 13th at a luncheon and Samba party. Mrs. Starkey's guests were Mesdames FRED STARBUCK, RUDOLPH ZAHL, WILL FINNEMORE, STANLEY WILLIAMS, TOM WATSON, RALPH WATERS, LEROY WEEKS and WILLIAM MIX.

Job's Daughters Begin New Year

Job's Daughters of Campbell held their first regular meeting of the year January 17th at 2:30 p. m. in the IOOF Hall, with Darlene Campbell, Honored Queen, presiding.

Installation ceremonies were held January 10th in the Campbell Grammar School Cafeteria, followed by dancing and refreshments.

Installation was conducted by Janis Henley, retiring Honored Queen, as installing officer; Joline Howard as installing musician; Bobby Enoch as installing guide; Jean Currie as installing marshal; Pat Casterson as installing reader; Margaret and Beverly Andrews as installing custodians; Katherine Jones as installing chaplain. Mrs. Rae Denning was hostess.

Cambrian Scouts Plan Projects

Troops 26 and 77 of the Cambrian Park Girl Scouts are looking forward to a merger, which will take place soon. Troop 26 is under the leadership of Mrs. Manley Nelson, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Stoddard, and Troop 77 is led by Mrs. Henry Prizmich.

Election of officers was held recently in Troop 26. The girls chosen for chief responsibilities are Sharlene Mohan, Leslie Bagar and Penny Mallette, patrol leaders; Mary Susan Nelson, secretary; Pamela Stoddard, treasurer; Myrna Markhussen, chairman of refreshments.

An important event in the girls' scouting life will take place near the end of February, when the Court of Awards will be held. All the girls have been working since September to complete the ten requirements for the second class scout award.

To fulfill the requirement for community service, the scouts will do the decor, in Valentine motif, for the February meeting of the Mothers' Club; each scout will also invite ten mothers, informing them of the available care for small children at that time and seeing that transportation is provided for each mother if necessary.

Other projects of the scouts include the potting of rare geraniums and other choice plants and the making of recipe books. Both books and plants will be for sale. The goal to be achieved through these undertakings is a two night trip the scouts plan to take when school is closed in June.

Pundita Circle Exchanges Roses

Clippings from favorite rose bushes, with accompanying bits of original verse, were exchanged by Pundita Circle members at their January 14th meeting, which was held in the Lovell Avenue home of Mrs. Fredrick Nybre, president of the group. Co-hostesses with Mrs. Nybre were Mrs. D. H. Cramer and Mrs. Carl Kirsher. Approximately twenty members were in attendance.

Business And Professional Women Attend District Conference At P. A.

"Women must accept their responsibility in building peace in the world", stated Kathleen Norris at the Peninsula District B. P. W. C. conference held at Rickie's in Palo Alto last week end. The key to reaching peace said Mrs. Norris is prayer. Women should assume their place in politics as well as in business and the home. The illustrious novelist gave an entertaining, thought provoking talk following the Saturday night banquet.

The Saturday afternoon session was characterized by a Buzz Session led by Peninsula District B. P. W. C. Program Coordinator, Mildred Mann of Santa Cruz. What holds women back in their jobs and what steps the organization can take to overcome these problems were discussed in small groups. Buzzing was also done on health problems and attitudes, how foreign born women can be assisted in meeting employment problems and to what extent the State Federation of B. P. W. C. should promote women for public office.

Sunday morning was taken up by a business meeting presided over by Loretta Williams of San Francisco. Campbell was represented by Thelma Solari who as president reported on the activities of the Campbell club and Gwen Steindorf, chairman of By-Laws, all of which were passed.

Gwen Steindorf presided at the Sunday luncheon. "Training for Responsibility" was discussed by Helen Maddox, Eureka, 2nd Vice

Billie Dale And Nellie Friesth Wed In Candle Light Ceremony

Billie Dale and Nellie Friesth recited nuptial vows January 15th in an intimate, late evening ceremony at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Romain Baker of Lenray Lane. The double ring rites were performed by the Reverend Jacob Bellig of the Neighborhood Church of Willow Glen. Fourteen close friends of the couple were present.

paratively small but outlined reasons why individuals are willing to care for children under these circumstances. First, Farley said, foster parents have a sincere desire to help the child by providing a well-rounded and secure home life. Foster parents derive an honest satisfaction from doing good work in helping children in no position to help themselves, and there are those whose incomes are considerably bolstered by the money paid by the county for care of the children.

Next week's program will feature a talk by Campbell attorney Martin S. Walsh who will deliver an address on "Freedom, Our Sacred Trust".

Campbell Kiwanis Club is also making plans for the inter-club meet scheduled for February 4, at which all service clubs in the Campbell High School district are invited to participate.

Campbell Kiwanis Club originated the inter-club a year and a half ago which received excellent attendance from Rotary, Lions, Business and Professional Women, and other service organizations in the area.

Mr. Carman said that trees would be kept at the nursery for a short length of time if planters find the ground too wet for planting at this time. A call to any of the committee will place an order, among the members to be contacted for trees are: Mrs. Leal, Robert Dunn, Mrs. Milton Parker, Eugene W. Barnes, J. D. MORELAND DISTRICT FORMS FAMILY FOLK DANCING CLASS

Plans are under way to form a family folk dancing class in the Moreland School District, under the sponsorship of the Campbell District Adult Education center.

James Hall of the Moreland School Faculty will do the calling. A registration meeting will be held Wednesday, January 28th at the school cafeteria and the group will meet weekly thereafter. Registration fee will be $1.00 for each adult. There will be no charge for children, officials said.

Parents are urged to attend, and to bring along those of their children who are old enough to follow instruction and enjoy together a family recreational evening.

Cafeteriums Are Now Open At Moorpark

New cafeteriums are now in operation at Moorpark and San Tomas Schools. The cafeteriums are recent completions of the Campbell Union School District building program.

Principal Mark Swengel of San Tomas reports about 330 youngsters are being served lunch each day. New facilities at Moorpark serve between 300 and 350 lunches per day, Principal John Duncan reports.

Cafeteriums are provided with kitchens operated by the School district hot lunch program. Rooms are equipped with fold away tables and benches that make clear space available such as folk dancing. Benches are used as auditorium seats. Both auditoriums have a stage for school performances.

WILLIAM FULLER, brother of Mrs. Verle Grizzle, up from Los Alamos, New Mexico, returned yesterday after a four day holiday at the Poplar Ave. home of the Grizzles.
